

I believe that Deaf people using the Video Relay Service should have their high speed access automatically provided by the telephone network. We are being asked now to pay two to three times more than for a regular dial-up or IP service in order to access video relay services. An analogy is charging wheelchair permit people a premium for wheel chair access parking because parking spaces near the store entrance is inherently more valuable and desirable than parking spaces farther away.